

Photography

Description

Gold, Silver, and Bronze awards may be given for the best black-and-white and/or color photography. All work must have appeared in print in an institutional publication or periodical or have been used for some institutional purpose such as on a web site, an exhibition, or advertising.

Subcategories

a. Individual Photography

- * Recognizes the outstanding work of a single photographer (freelance or staff).
- * Entries cannot be made by freelancers; they must be made by the member institution or educational affiliate for which the work was done.
- * One photograph constitutes a single entry.

b. Photographer of the Year

- * Recognizes the outstanding work of a single photographer (freelance or staff).
- * Entries cannot be made by freelancers; they must be made by the member institution or educational affiliate for which the work was done.

Judging Criteria

Judges specifically will look for:

- Interesting and creative visuals;
- Good technical quality;
- Appropriateness of use; and
- How photography communicates the institution's mission.
